8. And there I saw Enoch and all who were with him, stripped of the robes of the flesh, and I saw them in their robes of above, and they were like angels who stand there in great glory. 10. But they were not sitting on their thrones, nor were their crowns of glory on them.

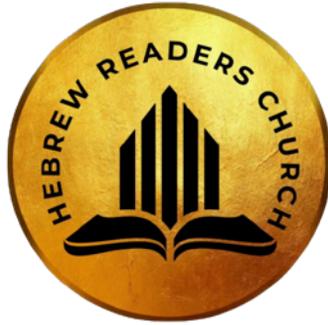

27. And I saw One standing, whose glory surpassed that of all, and His glory was great and wonderful.

28. And when they saw Him, all the righteous whom I had seen and the angels came to Him. And Adam and Abel and Seth and all the righteous approached first and worshipped Him, and they all praised Him with one voice, and I also was singing praises with them, and my praise was like theirs.

31. And then the angel who led me said to me, "Worship this One," and I worshipped and sang praises.

32. And the angel said to me: "This is the Lord of all the praise which you have seen."
33. And while I was still speaking, I saw another Glorious Person who was like Him, and the righteous approached her and worshipped and sang praises, and I also sang praises with them. But her glory was not transformed to accord with their form.
34. And then the angels approached and worshipped Her.
35. And I saw the Lord and the second angel, and they were standing.
36. And the second one, whom I saw was on the left of my Lord. And I asked the angel who led me and said to him, "Who is this?" and he said unto me, "Worship that One, for She is the Holy Spirit, who speaketh in you and also in the other righteous."
37. And I saw the Great Glory, the eyes of my spirit were open, but I could not thereafter see, nor the angel who was with me, nor any the angels whom I saw worship my Lord.
38. But I saw the righteous as they beheld with great power the glory of that One.
39. And my Lord approached me, and the Holy Spirit, and said: "See how it is given to you to see Ahayah, and because of your power has been given to the angel who is with you." 40. And I saw how my Lord and the Holy Spirit worshipped, and they both together praised Ahayah.
